

Hmong International Mission

Your Missionaries:

Rev. Dr. Fungchatou (Fung) and Dr. Kalia Lo were born in Laos to two non-Christian families. By the grace of God, their families immigrated to America as refugees from Laos and became Christians. In 2000, Dr. Fung graduated with his Ph.D. in Urban Studies from the University Wisconsin-Milwaukee. Dr. Fung was a university professor at the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh and at St. John's University in Minnesota for a total of ten years. In 2007, Fung graduated from St. Louis Seminary and was ordained as a LCMS Pastor, and accepted his first called as a foreign missionary to Indonesia. . Similarly, in 2018, Kalia got her Doctor of Education (Ed.D.) from Bethel University in Minnesota. Dr. Kalia was a teacher for the Minneapolis and St. Paul public schools prior to the Lo family's departure to serve the Lord in Thailand. The Lo family had been servicing as foreign missionaries with the LCMS's Office of International Mission from 2007-2013. For the past four years, the Lo family has been missionaries in Thailand to the Hmong people in Southeast Asia.

The Ministry:

Working in partnership with Mission of Christ Network, LINC-International, and the Hmong Mission Society, the Lo family is currently serving the Lord as foreign missionaries to the Hmong in Southeast Asia. Their primary ministry focus is to seek, save and equip the Hmong people for Kingdom growth. Their specific ministries include, but not limited to theological and discipleship trainings with Hmong pastors and leaders from the countries of Thailand, Laos, and Vietnam. They also working with the local Hmong congregations to start new ministries and plant more churches. In 2020 alone, the ministry had 310 baptisms, started 13 new ministries, and added 8 new theological training sites to their theological training program.

Purpose of Visit:

As a part of the Lo's furlough, they would like to share the Lord's exciting and growing ministry among the Hmong in Southeast Asia with the LCMS church members in your church and area. They are looking for partners to help them to continue to impact the Hmong for eternity. Therefore, they would like to share their time and the Lord's ministry with congregations and individuals who would like to engage in the Great Commission with the Hmong in Southeast Asia.

They are willing to meet with Circuit Winkles, Bible study groups, LLL groups, LWML groups, Sunday School classes, worships, and other support raising events. Also, Pastor Lo is available to preach on Sunday worship services. For more information please contact the following individuals:
